

Margo Fuchs-Knill; Keynote Day 2

“Amazement: The Gate Into The Future”

Margo Fuchs Knill is a professor, psychotherapist, expressive arts professional and poet. She is the Dean of the Division Arts, Health and Society at EGS, and she is a member of the original Core Faculty of the European Graduate School.

She was an Ass. Professor at Lesley University, Cambridge, MA. Margo Fuchs

Knill works in private practice and teaches expressive arts internationally at training institutes in Europe, Russia, Asia, Latin America and the US. She is the author of numerous poetry books, such as Von nun an and she has contributed numerous book chapters on poetry, poetics and expressive arts.

She is co-author of Minstrels of Soul: Intermodal Expressive Therapy, as well as a contributor to Foundations of Expressive Arts Therapy. Her latest book together with Sally Atkins is titled Poetry in Expressive Arts: Supporting Resilience through Poetic Writing.

Find out more at: <https://www.expressivearts.egs.edu/margo-fuchs-knill>

